Many states require their own controlled substances registration/license. Please check with your state licensing authority for requirement information as the AMA does not maintain this information.

Specialty Board Certification

Specialty Board Certification(s) by one or more of the 24 boards recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) and the American Medical Association (AMA) through the Liaison Committee on Specialty Boards, as reported by the ABMS:

The AMA Physician Profile has been designated by the ABMS as an Official ABMS Display Agent of Member Board Certification data. Therefore, the ABMS Board Certification information on the AMA Physician Profile is considered a designated equivalent source in regard to credentialing standards set forth by Joint Commission. The AMA is also an NCQA-approved source for verification of medical school, postgraduate medical training, ABMS Board certification, and Federal DEA registration.

Profile Information

The content of the AMA Physician Profile is intended to assist with credentialing. An organization's appropriate use of the data contained in the AMA Physician Masterfile meets selected primary source verification requirements of the Joint Commission, the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care (AAAHC) and the American Accreditation Health Care Commission (AAHCC)/Utilization Review Accreditation Commission (URAC). The AMA Physician Masterfile is also an NCQA-approved source for verification of medical school, post-graduate medical training, ABMS Board Certification and federal DEA registration.

If any of the data in this Profile is believed to be incorrect, please log in to your account on our profiles website, go to the profile manager tab, find the provider for whom you think we have inaccurate information and click on the "Report" button in the "Report a Discrepancy" column. Enter any of the information that you feel needs to be researched. The AMA will contact the primary source of the data to determine which data is correct. We will notify you of the outcome of our research. If any changes are made to the profile we will update the link in profile manager for this provider so that you can access the new, updated information.

If you have any questions or need additional information about the AMA Physician Profile Service, please call (800) 665-2882.
