

AMA Physician Profile Self-Inquiry

Information on this form reflects the most current information recorded within the AMA Physician Masterfile. This self-inquiry profile is provided to you as a means to review the information that may be provided to AMA-vetted organizations that have been authorized by you to verify your credentials for the purpose of licensing, credentialing, or payer enrollment. You may also find the information provided in this document helpful as you complete an application for employment, privileges, or licensing.

If you believe any information on this self-inquiry profile to be in error or omitted, please log into your AMA Profiles Hub account and submit a discrepancy investigation request (see how-to guide). The majority of data contained in a self-inquiry profile is obtained from primary sources. AMA must verify any changes provided in your discrepancy request with the primary source before a change can be made to your profile. Some additional items to be aware of:

- A change to name or birth date requires legal documentation (click for more information).
- To expedite verification of ACGME-accredited training data, you are encouraged to download and complete an AMA release form and provide AMA a copy of completion documents issued by the ACGME-accredited program. Foreign training or non-ACGME accredited program information are neither collected nor maintained in the AMA Physician Masterfile. (For more details, see the medical training section of this self-inquiry profile.)

After you have reviewed your self-inquiry profile, you may request to have your official AMA Initial Physician Profile delivered to a medical licensing board via the AMA Profiles Hub (see how-to guide). It is a best practice to review your self-inquiry profile and await resolution on any discrepancy investigation requests you have submitted prior to requesting your profile be delivered to a medical licensing board.

Organizations who have received your authorization to verify your credentials may receive a copy of your official Profile by signing into their approved AMA Profiles Hub account or calling (800) 665-2882. (Please note that medical education number and email address are only displayed on this AMA Physician Profile Self-Inquiry; they do not appear on AMA Profiles accessed by organizations.)

Current and/or historical post graduate medical training programs accredited by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME)

Beginning with the 2010 cycle of the National GME Census, post-graduate training segments will include the name of the program attended in addition to the sponsoring institution. Program-level information prior to 2010 will not be available for reporting. Future training dates, as reported by the program, should be interpreted as "in progress" or "current" with the projected date of completion.

Beginning with the 2016/2017 cycle of the National GME Census post-graduate training segments will include a training type of specialty (residency) or subspecialty (fellowship). Training types for programs reported prior to 2016 will not include this designation.

Post-graduate training performed at accredited osteopathic institutions or in Canada are updated on the AMA Physician Masterfile only upon verification by the program. US licensing authorities accept graduate medical education from both entities as equivalent to training performed in a US program accredited by ACGME.

If a segment below is indicated as "being re-verified", it typically means that the physician is a current resident and the AMA is confirming with the residency program that the physician is still enrolled - this standard process occurs on an annual basis.

Specialty Board Certification

Specialty Board Certification(s) by one or more of the 24 boards recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties (ABMS) and the American Medical Association (AMA) through the Liaison Committee on Specialty Boards, as reported by the ABMS:

The AMA Physician Profile has been designated by the ABMS as an Official ABMS Display Agent of Member Board Certification data. Therefore, the ABMS Board Certification information on the AMA Physician Profile is considered a designated equivalent source in regard to credentialing standards set forth by Joint Commission. The AMA is also an NCQA-approved source for verification of medical school, postgraduate medical training, ABMS Board certification, and Federal DEA registration.

Profile Information

The content of the AMA Physician Profile is intended to assist with credentialing. An organization's appropriate use of the data contained in the AMA Physician Masterfile meets selected primary source verification requirements of the Joint Commission, the Accreditation Association for Ambulatory Health Care (AAAHC) and the American Accreditation Health Care Commission(AAHCC)/Utilization Review Accreditation Commission (URAC). The AMA Physician Masterfile is also an NCQA-approved source for verification of medical school, post-graduate medical training, ABMS Board Certification and federal DEA registration.

If any of the data in this Profile is believed to be incorrect, please log in to your account on our profiles website, go to the profile manager tab, find the provider for whom you think we have inaccurate information and click on the "Report" button in the "Report a Discrepancy" column. Enter any of the information that you feel needs to be researched. The AMA will contact the primary source of the data to determine which data is correct. We will notify you of the outcome of our research. If any changes are made to the profile we will update the link in profile manager for this provider so that you can access the new, updated information.

If you have any questions or need additional information about the AMA Physician Profile Service, please call (800) 665-2882.
